

SUDZERØ powder-to-foam hand wash

SUDZERØ is an innovative powder-to-foam hand wash that is redefining handwashing and how we care for people and planet. Designed to support businesses in achieving their sustainability objectives, it reduces carbon, cost, and waste compared to traditional liquid soap all while creating real living wage work experience for people facing barriers to work, including homeless and disabled people.

SMALL
SACHET
MAKES 350ML
SOAP

produced by
Amplify Goods.

Small sachet refill pack
10 x boxes of 12 small sachets

Small sachet starter kit
20 x boxes of 12 small sachets
Plus 20 x 350ml free-standing bottles

LARGE
SACHET
MAKES 4L
SOAP

Large sachet refill pack
10 x boxes of 5 large sachets

Large sachet starter kit
10 x boxes of 5 large sachets
Plus 6 x upcycled 5L containers

Dispensers
1 x bulk-fill wall dispenser 900ml (empty)
1 x free-standing foam bottle 350ml (empty)

SUDZERØ lightweight powder solution:

- Makes a luxury high-quality foam texture
- Utilises naturally derived ingredients that maintain product stability
- 94% naturally derived ingredients including Pentylene Glycol from sugar cane waste (99.9%+ when diluted)
- 98% less weight and 97% less space*
- Carbon savings due to local, water-free production and low carbon packaging
- Packed in 100% home compost certified tear and pour sachets
- 5+ minutes paid work for people facing barriers to employment

* Compared to traditional liquid soap